Nominations Sought for Solano County's Bike Commuter of the Year

Suisun City, CA – Solano Napa Commuter Information (SNCI) is requesting nominations for Solano County Bike Commuter of the Year. The winner will be recognized during the Bay Area's 17th Annual Bike to Work activities. Bike to Work Day is Thursday, May 12, 2011. Individuals are encouraged to nominate friends and co-workers who exemplify the health, environmental, social and economic benefits of bicycling for their chance to be chosen as the Solano County Bike Commuter of the Year. Nominees must be a resident of Solano County

"Biking to work is a fun and easy way to get in shape, save money and help the environment," commented Judy Leaks, SNCI Program Manager and event coordinator for Bike to Work Day activities in Solano County. Nominations for Solano County's Bike Commuter of the Year will be accepted through April 15th at www.youcanbikethere.com. The winner will receive bike-related prizes. The 2010 Solano County Bike Commuter of the Year was Patrick Garner of Vacaville.

Solano Napa Commuter Information is a program of the Solano Transportation Authority which regularly encourages the use of alternative modes of transportation for commuting including transit, carpooling, vanpooling, and bicycles.
